

Le Belle Macchine d'Europa

Rules & Regulations

TOURING SESSIONS

* You must attend the driver's meeting each morning. Failure to attend will forfeit eligibility to participate and all funds set forth
* All vehicle occupants must wear Seatbelts at all times.
* There is absolutely no passing
* Wait at pit out until released by track Marshall
* You will be sent on to the track in-groups behind a pace car.
* Know your pace car. It will set the pace for you to follow.
* The pace cars will drive the "line". This is for your benefit. Attempt to follow the pace car's line or position on the track. This is the optimal position for you to be in at speed.
* There is no falling back and catching up. Maintain a uniform distance from car in front of you.
* Cars pitting should signal the cars behind by having their left fist out the window prior to reaching the pit entrance.
* You may leave and rejoin the session.
* Watch the start/finish line for flags.
* When you see the checkered flag, the session is over. Follow your pace car around the track & into the pits.
  Under no circumstances, will cars remain on the track after your pace car has pitted.
* Follow any signals or instructions given you. Should you be shown a black flag, pit immediately.
* All drivers will be required to have a wristband to participate in the session. To receive yours, sign this sheet and present it with your ticket at drivers meeting.
* These rules are for your safety. Failure to comply with these rules will result in your expulsion from the touring session, possible expulsion from event, and forfeiture of your Fee(s). The decision of the officials is final and without appeal.

The undersigned has read the rules & regulations and agrees to abide by them. They also assume all responsibility and choose to participate at their own risk and release Italian Cars, Inc., Classic Automobile Renaissance Society, Inc, Stockcar Racing Experience, Flagging and Communications, Pocono International Raceway, Ferrari Club of America, all associated clubs, sponsors and their representatives from any and all responsibility & liability with attending and participating in Le Belle Macchine d'Europa 2014.
